Retrieval	Core Knowledge	Student Thinking
What do teachers need to retrieve from students before they start teaching new content ?	What specific ambitious knowledge do teachers need to teach students in this sequence of learning?	What real life examples can be applied to this sequence of learning to development of our students thinking, encouraging them to see the inequalities around them and 'do something about them!'
Students own knowledge and understanding of sport - students prior sporting experience, through playing or spectating or teaching, may have developed some level of knowledge in aspects of topics covered in this unit. KS4 Curriculum - students will have in depth knowledge of what a "major sporting event" is and will have previously evaluated some of the positive and negative effects of hosting one of those events on the host nation/city. - Furthermore, they will have a sound understanding of the origination of the Olympic games, its values and the Olympic creed. KS3 Curriculum	The modern Olympic Games Students will understand how the Olympic originated in the 19th century, with a particular focus on its background and aims. Students will then analyse the impact of how the Olympics have now be used for political exploitation, and how this impact both that specific games but future games after the event. Political events to eb taught will be: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Berlin 1936, Third Reich Ideology - Mexico City 1968 'Black Power' demonstration - Munich 1972 Palestinian terrorism - Moscow 1980 boycott lead by USA - Los Angeles 1984 boycott by Soviet Union Hosting global sporting events Students will know the short and long term effects of hosting global sporting events such as a the Olympic Games or FIFA World Cup. They will evaluate the positive and negative effects that these events have on the host country/city. They will focus on these 4 categories. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - sporting effects - social effects 	Each week, a key theme will run through all PE lessons linked to real life examples. These will be linked to the particular learning outcome the students are on at the time and will be consistent across the department. The aim will be for students to develop their thinking, recognise the inequalities within sport (linked to the topic) and do something about them. In the 'teaching' lessons, students will be provided with a starter to challenge stereotypes in sport and then an activity linked to heading being covered where they can 'do something about them.' <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1.
