

CURRICULUM MAP

Students assess the complex interests of different individuals, groups and states. Student focuses on International relations and the causes of the conflict in the Second World War and why it was difficult to resolve its underlying issues.

Students understand the differing political ideologies that exist throughout the world.

Students learn to understand the importance of democracy.

Students assess the change in society under Nazi Germany and the horrors associated with regime.

Norman England, c1066–c1100

Conflict and tension, 1918–1939

YEAR
11

Germany, 1890–1945: Democracy and dictatorship

Students have the chance to study the major events and developments that have influenced Britain today from economic, religious, political, social and cultural standpoints.

Students able to learn that the issue of racism in society still exists and how people campaigned for equality.

USA in the 20th century (Civil rights)

YEAR
10

Britain: Health and the people: c1000 to the present day

Students have the opportunity to study different beliefs of disease throughout history and can apply this to modern day society and how we deal with health today.

The Holocaust

The Second World War

YEAR
9

Women's suffrage

The First World War

Students learn to understand prejudice, persecution and genocide. Students learn why it is important to remember all the lives lost in the Holocaust and Second World War.

Students learn about the impact of World War One and how it encouraged campaigning for equality in Britain, especially the suffragettes campaign and the right for women to vote.

The English Civil war

YEAR
8

Britain's transatlantic slave trade

Britain as the first industrial nation

The development of the British Empire

Why were the Tudors significant?

What was medieval life like?

Why were the Crusades important?

The significance of Norman castles.

Raiders and Invaders- Norman England 1066

YEAR
7

Students have the chance to understand why Britain's main religion is Christianity and the Church of England.

Students understand the issue of racism in the world.

Students are able to understand the importance of remembering the lives lost in the Great War.

Students learn to understand why Britain has a multicultural society.

Students have the opportunity to find our medieval life influenced society today.

Students have the opportunity to find out about the influence of the Pope through Europe.

MEDEN
SCHOOL